THE UNIVERSITY OF DODOMA (UDOM) is a newly established public university. It is a perfect place for foreigners to learn Kiswahili language. The university is situated on a hill from which the whole scenery of the Capital City of Tanzania, DODOMA, can be observed. The University receives cool winds and breezes from all directions during the day and at night as well. In its life time, the university is envisaged to be the biggest in East Africa and second to none as the center of Kiswahili scholarship.

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

- (1) Any college students from foreign countries (within and outside Africa), preferably with a GPA of 2.5 and a good background in African Studies
- (2) Any one who intends to do some research in East Africa and wants to use Kiswahili as the language of communication between him or her and his or her respondents
- (3) Any expatriate resident in East Africa who wants to learn or sharpen his or her knowledge of Kiswahili.

COURSES OFFERED

Elementary Kiswahili
Intermediate Kiswahili
Advanced Kiswahili

EIGHT WEEK COURSES

12 credits, 20 hours a week

SIX WEEK COURSES

9 credits, 20 hours a week

FOUR WEEK COURSES

6 credits, 20 hours a week

The courses cover all basic aspects of Kiswahili grammar and they further equip participants with some cultural information.

Method: Lectures, short conversations, language drills, daily exercises, etc. There are also trips to Bagamoyo, Zanzibar and Mikumi National Park (game reserve). It is expected that students should be able to converse, read and write in Kiswahili at the basic level after the course.

All exercises and tests are corrected and graded. At the end of the course, there is an examination. Students who pass get credits for the course taken. Those who do not need credits are not required to sit for the examination.

STAFF

The Department of Kiswahili is fully staffed with well equipped, energetic and dynamic members, ready for you to gush forth your Kiswahili. For sure, you won't regret your choice of studying Kiswahili at the UDOM.
